

take me to hear all sorts of music in different places

introduce me to music in all its variety

- let me hear street musicians and buskers – will they let me feel their instruments afterwards?
- take me to children's concerts
- try 'relaxed' performances of classical music and musicals
- jazz gigs can be great fun – and I won't have to keep so quiet!
- I might well enjoy listening to singing as part of religious ceremonial
- carnivals can be great multisensory experiences!
